The Cyprus Economy Panel 2024: Performance and prospects

Wednesday 7 February 2024 | 17:30 - 18:45

The web-discussion will be accessible online via Zoom

Speaker: Heiko Peters - Vice President, Senior Analyst in Moody's Sovereign Risk Group, in Frankfurt

Chair: Ioannis Tirkides - Economic Research Manager, Bank of Cyprus, and President of the Cyprus Economic Society

Abstract: The discussion will focus on resilience and vulnerabilities for the Cyprus economy, against an uncertain international outlook; will look into the drivers of growth and the significance of macroeconomic stability; the challenges posed by the twin transition to a digital future and a green economy; will consider the role reforms can play in balancing the economy and raising potential growth.

Web instructions: The discussion forum will be a web only event on Zoom and the web link for joining in, will be sent to you on the day of the event. You may download Zoom at <https://zoom.us/download>.

The Cyprus Economic Society: Founded in 1962 as a not-for-profit organisation with the general aim of promoting the study of economics in Cyprus, the Cyprus Economic Society has endured and adapted itself to the changing conditions in Cyprus and abroad. It is an independent, transparent, and open society. Its mission is 'to inform public debate and to facilitate discussion of public policy issues and EU affairs'. We seek to achieve this mission by encouraging and disseminating research; organising various conferences, lectures, and discussion events; publishing articles, papers, and proceedings; and, engaging with other similar societies and professional bodies in the EU, and elsewhere.
